DEPARTMENT OF STATE.
WASHINGTON, D. C., NOV. 17,

Washington, D. C., Nov.17.]

To the Hon, Gideon Welles, Secretary of the Navy:

Sin—A dispatch was received yesterday from Charles A. Washburne, Esq., late United States Minister to Paraguay, which was written at Buenos Ayres on the 20th of September last. The dispatch shows that a controversy has been carried on for some time between him and the President of Paraguay. The merits of the confroversy can in speen carried on the some time between him and the President of Paraguay. The merits of the confroversy can not be well understood until a copy of the correspondence itself shall have been received, which is now daily expected; meanwhile, Mr. Washburne's dispatch conclusively shows that the situation of all foreigners, including United States citizens at Asouncion, is greatly imperiled, and that especially Porter C. Bliss and George F. Waterman, United States citizens lately in some way connected with the United States Legation, have suffered personal violence, and have perhaps been murdered.

A dispatch has been received from Mr. Webb, United States that he requested Rear Admiral Davis, commanding the South Atlantic Squadron, to send

THE PARAGUAYAR INBROGLIO.

Rio. in which he states that he requested Rear Admiral Davis, commanding the South Atlantic Squadron, to send or proceed with adequate naval force to Ascunsion to protect American citizens. Mr. Webb is unable to inform the Department whether Admiral Davis would assume the responsibility of complying with his request without special instructions from this Government. The situation thus presented seems to me so critical that I have thought it my duty to advise the President that the Rear Admiral should be instructed to proceed with an adequate force at once to Paraguay, and take such measures as may be found necessary to prevent violence to the lives sary to prevent violence to the lives and property of American citizens there, and in the exercise of a sound discretion, to demand and obtain prompt redress for any extreme insul-or violence that may have been arbi-trarily committed against the flag of the United States or their citizens. I have the honor to be your obedient ervant, William H. SEWARD. servant,

COUNTY.

Suspicious Circumstances. (From the Fuirmont Wet Virginian.)
On Thursday evening of last week, a box containing 20 Harper's Ferry improved muskets. I Springfield rifle, I shot gun, and a large quantity of percussion caps, shipped from one James Falsem of New York, and marked "J.F., Barracksville, W., Va.", was selzed at the above named place, by Lieut, Hailsron, under instructions from the civil authorities. The way-bill was directed to "James C. Page, C. O. D. $30.35," The last named gentleman, we understand, was, during the late rebellion, a Captain in the confederate army. "The contraband goods were handed over to the Sheriff of this county, on Tuesday evening last, to be held by him mill the purpose for which they were shipped to the above place is ascertained. There are several circumstances connected with the shipment of guns to that place which make it look as though there were preparations being made to bring about more trouble. We await the investigation with no little anxiety. (From the Fairmont We.t Virginian.) The text of the verdict rendered by the jury of inquest is as follows:

City of Richmond, to wit:—An inquisition taken at the office of the Southern siliou taken at the office of the Southern Opinion, Fourteenth and Main streets, in said city, on the 24th day of November, 1868, before me, J. P. Little, coroner, upon the view of the body of H. Rives Pollard, there lying dead. The jurors sworn to inquire when, how and by what means the said H. Rives Pollard came to his death, upon their oaths do say that he came to his death by a gun-shot wound; that the shot was fired on the 24th of November, about nine-and-a-half of clock. A.
